CHICAGO, June 12.—Warren G. Harding, senator from Ohio, was nominated for the presidency today by the Republican national convention after a deadlock which lasted nine ballots and which finally forced out all original favorites.

As his running mate, the convention named Gov. Calvin Coolidge of Massachusetts, upsetting a plan of a combination of the Harding backers to nominate Senator Irvine L. Lenroot of Wisconsin.

Collapse of the forces of Governor Lowden and their transfer in large part to Senator Harding put the Ohio candidate over.

General Wood lost heavily, however, when the Harding drift began, and Senator Johnson, the third of the trio of leaders on the early balloting also went steadily down.

Entering the convention as a candidate of the "dark horse" class, Senator Harding got only sixty four votes on the first ballot yesterday and on the second he dropped to 56. When the convention adjourned last night, after the fourth ballot he had 61.

In all night conferences, however, he was mentioned many times as the one most likely to break the nomination deadlock should neither Wood, Lowden nor Johnson take a commanding lead today. They all failed to do so, Wood and Lowden running a neck and neck race for leadership on four more ballots, while Johnson's strength dwindled steadily.

Meantime Harding pushed up to 123, individual delegates swinging to him from the column of the leaders of the favorite sons. The Johnson managers, fearing a landslide, then made a last play to save the fortune of their candidate. They moved to recess for two hours to take an inventory and seek a new combination. The Wood and Lowden forces, both virtually at the peak of their strength but disheartened at the long string of ballots without material gains, fell in with the recess plan and the convention adopted it.

Dramatic Finish
In the dramatic succession of conferences, the fate of the candidates virtually was sealed. Some of the Wood and Lowden managers tried ineffectually for an agreement which would hold their delegates and kill off Harding. Some tried to get a Wood-Lowden-Johnson agreement to adjourn until Monday without making a nomination. There also was a conference between Johnson and Harding supporters in which the Ohioan's supporters tried without success to have the remaining Johnson strength swing to Harding.

It was the parties between the Harding and Lowden men, however, which apparently bore the most fruit when the balloting began again, for Governor Lowden came to the convention during the ninth roll call and, reversing a previous plan to go before the convention itself, issued instructions behind the scenes releasing his instructed delegates to Senator Harding also was in the rear of the Coliseum platform during the voting and conferred with Chairman Hays.

Almost as soon as the call of states began after the recess the ground swell for Harding demonstrated it could not be forestalled. Connecticut took thirteen of her fourteen votes from Lowden and gave them to Harding. In Florida he got seven from Wood, and then Kentucky, almost from the first a solid Lowden state, flopped complete to Harding.

Harding and Coolidge Issue Statements

BOSTON, June 12.—Governor Coolidge when notified tonight that he had been nominated by the Republican convention for the vice presidency, authorized The Associated Press to say that he would accept the nomination.

Governor Coolidge received word of his nomination in his apartment in company with Mrs. Coolidge and his aide, Captain C. S. Riley, and his secretary, H. F. Long. The governor indicated that he was very well pleased.

Over a telephone from the local office of The Associated Press he received the vote of the states and the flash of his nomination. He indicated his acceptance and then announced the news to Mrs. Coolidge and others of their party.

The governor in a statement said:

"The nomination for vice president coming to me unsought and unexpected, I accept as an honor and a duty. It will be especially pleasing to be associated with my old friend Senator Warren G. Harding.

"The Republican party has adopted a sound platform, chosen a wise leader and is united. It deserves the confidence of the American people. That confidence I shall endeavor to secure."

Calvin Coolidge of Northampton, Mass., also in public life in his adopted state almost since his graduation from Amherst in 1895 was little known outside of Massachusetts, until the greater part of the police force of Boston went on strike in September, 1919. Coolidge was governor. He ordered out the state guard to patrol Boston after a night of rioting, announced law and order would be preserved and declared that strikers would be fined, and that their places would be filled.

The stand he took carried his name to all over the country and in his own state he was nicknamed "Law and Order" Coolidge.

As the presidential campaign approached his admirers tried to induce him to become an active candidate for the presidency.

Senator Lodge had offered to present his name to the national convention if the governor so desired, when he announced he was not a candidate.

CHICAGO, June 12.—Caught at the hotel to which he rushed from the coliseum after his nomination, Senator Harding made no formal statement but declared he was "very happy" and "deeply grateful" to his friends.

He showed plainly his elation when he emerged from his rooms with Mrs. Harding to face a battery of camera men.

"If you want to make Mrs. Harding look pleased," said the man on whom the Republican party has conferred the great honor in its gift, "tell her something about the price of millinery coming down."

There was laughter in which Mrs. Harding joined and the cameras clicked a lively accompaniment.

Mrs. Harding was beaming with happiness. Asked for some comment she said:

"I am tremendously pleased, of course. But I think my husband is worthy of this honor and I am content to be in the reflected light."

Senator and Mrs. Harding were busy preparing to catch a train for Washington. The senator had been up nearly all night in the round of conference, which led to his nomination and today spent hours in the heat and strain of the coliseum while the battle from which he emerged victor by overwhelming vote was being brought to its dramatic close.

The pleasure of the victory had relaxed the physical strain, however, and he showed little evidence of it after he had bathed and put on fresh clothing.

Senator Harding tonight issued this statement:

"I am very proud, as any American should be, of receiving the great honor from the Republican party. I am not unmindful of the obligation and responsibility that go with it."

Harry M. Daugherty, national manager for Senator Harding said:

"On behalf of the Republicans of Ohio, and especially on behalf of Senator Harding, his family and friends, I desire to express to the Republicans of the country, men and women, our sincere gratitude for the confidence expressed in the wonderful man by nominating him."

Senator and Mrs. Harding entertained a small party of friends at dinner tonight, including Will H. Hays, chairman of the Republican national committee. The senator's party will leave at 11:45 p. m. for Washington.

CHICAGO, June 12.—Organized labor today threw down the gauntlet to the Republican party and will appeal to the Democrats for recognition of its platform demands.

This decision came when the American Federation of Labor convention unanimously condemned the Republican platform as a platform, defiant in its defense of the enemies of labor, and one that "proposes an industrial enslavement and an abrogation of rights as precious as life itself."

Declaring that the Republican party had turned "its back on labor," the convention instructed Samuel Gompers and Matthew Woll, president and vice president, to submit in "identical form" to the Democratic party convention the proposals presented to the Republicans.

REACH AGREEMENT
Brussels, June 12.—An agreement on the principle of a Franco-Belgian alliance was reached during the recent conference between Marshal Foch and General Wagnelle, chief of staff of the Belgian army. The alliance will be exclusively defensive.

HEAVY FIGHTING REPORTED
London, June 12.—Fighting has occurred at Nikolaisk, Eastern Siberia, between a Chinese gunboat and the Japanese warship, according to semi-official announcement from Peking Thursday, by Reuters.

HUSBAND KILLS YOUNG WIFE
QUINCY, Ill., June 12.—Returning from Quincy where she had been spending the evening with companions, Mrs. Clyde Humphrey, 18 years old, was shot and mortally wounded by her husband as she was alighting from an automobile. Humphrey stood in the driveway of a neighbor's home and as the machine stopped, he fired the bullet causing instant death.

The shooting took place south of Quincy. County officers went at once to the scene but were unable to locate Humphrey. The couple had had domestic trouble and jealousy is believed to have prompted the shooting.

GEN. WOOD THANKS FRIENDS FOR SUPPORT
CHICAGO, June 12.—Major General Leonard Wood tonight issued a statement thanking the public for the nation-wide expression of confidence and support in his campaign and also thanking his associates for their work in his behalf. The statement read:

"At the close of this campaign I take this opportunity to thank from the bottom of my heart all the men and women who have helped so loyally in the pre-convention and convention contest. I am sincerely grateful for their help and appreciate the spirit of unselfish loyalty in which it was given. I also appreciate the nation-wide expression of confidence and support."

FEAR THAT DEADLOCK WOULD PROVE DETRIMENTAL TO HIS PRATY
CHICAGO, June 12.—Fear of a deadlock which he believed would prove detrimental to his party caused Governor Lowden to release his delegates at today's session according to a statement made by him tonight. Governor Lowden said:

"After the eighth ballot, upon which I received a plurality of all votes cast, it was represented to me that the delegates were becoming restive under the delay. Fearing a protracted deadlock which I believed would have been detrimental to the interest of the country I decided to release all delegates and advised them to use their best judgment as to whom they would support. I have great confidence in the ability and character of the successful candidate, shall support him with all heartiness, and believe the ticket will be elected. The Republican party has not had such an opportunity for service in half a century."

"For the friendships formed during this campaign and for the loyal support of so many fine patriotic men and women, I shall never cease to be grateful."

"Governor Lowden withdrew from the interest of party harmony. A. T. Hert, national committee man from Kentucky and one of the Lowden leaders said tonight, Hert was a prime mover in transferring the Lowden votes to Harding and cast Kentucky's 26 for the victor."

Asked if he believed Lowden had reached the height of his strength on the eighth ballot, Hert said:

"It is my judgment that Wood would have been nominated had Lowden stayed in the fight."

Hays Again Chairman of National Committee

CHICAGO, June 12.—Will H. Hays, of Indiana, was tonight re-elected chairman of the Republican national committee.

Mr. Hays was re-elected at a meeting of the new national committee presided over by Henry McCoy, national committeeman from the Philippines. Harry M. Daugherty, national manager for Senator Harding on behalf of the presidential candidate requested that "something prompt, snappy and positive be done forthwith," to launch the fall campaign. The work ought not to be delayed, he said.

He asked that a sub-committee be appointed to confer with Senator Harding on the selection of assistant officers and an executive committee.

John T. Adams of Iowa, was elected vice chairman; Clarence B. Miller of Minnesota, secretary and Guy Howard also of Minnesota assistant secretary-at-large.

A sub-committee composed of Will H. Hays, chairman; Senator Weeks of Massachusetts; Charles D. Miles of New York; A. T. Hert of Kentucky; J. L. Hammond of Oklahoma and R. E. Williams of Oregon was authorized to select an executive committee of the national committee to be made up of fifteen members, eight men and seven women including an assistant secretary, to be a woman.

CHICAGO, June 12.—The convention adopted a resolution directing the national committee to formulate some new rule for representation, which would eliminate the troublesome situation prevailing in the southern states. It is in accord with the plan of cutting down representation.

CHICAGO, June 12.—General Wood issued the following statement before the official vote was announced: "I congratulate Senator Harding on his nomination. (Signed) Leonard Wood."

CHICAGO, June 12.—On motion of Mr. Hert of Kentucky, Senator Lodge was appointed chairman of the committee to notify Senator Harding of his nomination for president and that William Allen White of Kansas, chairman of the committee to notify Gov. Coolidge of his nomination as vice president.

PHILADELPHIA, June 12.—The story from Chicago that according to word received there from Senator Penrose's physician the senator is very low is too ridiculous to talk about, said L. C. Taylor, the senator's secretary today.

BOSTON, June 12.—Governor Coolidge tonight in a telegram of congratulations to Senator Harding said:

"Please accept my sincere congratulations and the assurance of every support in Massachusetts."

CHICAGO, June 12.—Senator Warren G. Harding the Republican nominee for president, will leave for Washington tonight on a Pennsylvania railroad special train four hours after the convention has adjourned.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., June 12.—W. H. Taft tonight sent this telegram to Senator Harding:

"I congratulate you most sincerely on your nomination. In a telegram to Governor Coolidge Mr. Taft said:

"The ticket of Harding and Coolidge should sweep the country."

NEW YORK, June 12.—Charles E. Hughes, unsuccessful Republican presidential candidate in 1916 tonight sent a telegram to Senator Harding saying:

"Heartiest congratulations."

MOUNT GILEAD, Ohio, June 12.—Republicans tonight launched a movement to restore the log cabin at Blooming Grove. In 1884 Dr. Harding moved his family to Marion. A short time afterward the father purchased for Warren Harding the Star.

HARDING'S HOME TOWN GOES WILD WITH JOY AS RESULT OF NOMINATION

MARION, Ohio, June 12.—This central Ohio city of nearly 85,000 went wild with joy tonight when it learned its citizen, Warren G. Harding had been nominated for the presidency by the Republicans.

Minutes before it was announced officially at Chicago Harding had been nominated, Marion started celebrating what it considered a sure thing. Factory whistles were tooted, church bells rung and Harding's friends and neighbors gathered in shouting, laughing groups.

Harding's father and sister, who live here, were the center of enthusiastic groups, who discussed excitedly the day's developments.

The father, Dr. J. P. Harding, a practicing physician, received the news on his 76th birthday. He declared that he had not wanted his son to be nominated, but now that he is nominated, he declared he would vote for him. Dr. Harding appeared to be the happiest man in the world tonight.

Senator Harding is a newspaper publisher, being owner of the Marion Star since 1884. He has been in Marion work since he was 19. When in Marion, he spends all of his time at the Star. He is a practical printer and delights in spending hours in his composing room.

He began his newspaper work on the Marion Mirror, a Democratic newspaper at $9 a week salary and was discharged during the Blaine campaign because his sympathies were with Blaine.

Senator Harding will be 55 years old on November 2, election day. Senator Harding's middle name is "Gamaliel." He knows how to smile even under defeat.

This was shown in the 1910 Ohio campaign when he opposed Judson Harmon for governor and was defeated by the Democratic candidate by more than 100,000 despite campaign assistance from Theodore Roosevelt.

Harding's Life Sketched
Warren G. Harding has always been a resident of Ohio, which state he has represented as United States Senator since 1914. In private business life he is publisher of the Marion, Ohio, Star.

He was born on a farm, near the village of Blooming Grove, Morrow county, Ohio, November 2, 1865. He was of eight children. His father, George T. Harding, was a country doctor whose forebears came from Scotland. Before going to Ohio, the Hardings were residents of Pennsylvania, where some of them were massacred by Indians. Others fought in the revolutionary war.

The mother of Warren, Mrs. Phoebe Dickerson, was descended from an old-time Holland Dutch family, the Van Kirks.

In his youth Warren Harding lived the life of a farmer boy attending the village school until 14 years of age, when he entered Ohio Central College of Iberia, from which he was graduated.

As editor of the college paper he first displayed a taste for journalism. He was obliged to stop school now and then and earn the money with which to pursue his college course. At one time he cut corn at another painted barns and at still another drove a team and helped to grade the roadbed of a new railway. At 17 he taught a district school and played a horn in the village band.

At odd times he worked in the village printing office, in time becoming an expert typesetter and later a linotype operator. He is a practical pressman and a job printer and as a "make up man" is said to have few equals. The luck piece he has carried as a senator is the old printer's rule used when he was sticking type.

In 1884 Dr. Harding moved his family to Marion. A short time afterward the father purchased for Warren Harding the Star.

THE TELEPHONE AS A MESSENGER

To duplicate telephone service in the United States by human agencies would take $3,422,222, messenger boys, a statistician of the Illinois Committee on Public Utility Information has figured. He found that there are 20,800-000 telephone calls completed every day. Assuming that one boy could complete a message delivery in one hour, or 9 a day, averaging up trips say from San Francisco to New York or other long distances, gives him his total.

There are 4,601.75 boys between the ages of 10 and 14 years in the country. In other words, he says, 75 per cent would have to drop out of school and help out business. The messengers, the expert says, would represent 1 out of every 33 inhabitants of the country.

A TRIBUTE TO GOVERNOR COOLIDGE

Some months ago Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler writing in the Boston Transcript had this to say about Governor Calvin Coolidge and his public addresses rather into a book under the title "Have Faith in Massachusetts."

"The Massachusetts of Samuel Adams, of Fisher Ames, of Daniel Webster and of John A. Andrews speaks with the voice of Governor Coolidge. Fortunate indeed is that American state which in troubled times like these can speak by a voice that is so clear, so definite, so courageous, and so absolutely American. Often his sentences are texts rather than arguments. They compel attention and stimulate thought. . . . Nowhere in these pages is there a cheap appeal to men's meaner emotions, and nowhere is a false note struck regarding American principles. The straight thinking and convincing utterances of Governor Coolidge's papers and addresses will powerfully aid in awakening the men and women of Massachusetts and of the nation generally to their instant duty and responsibility."

A CALL TO CITIZENSHIP

As a community above the ordinary, we as citizens of Jacksonville deserve no special credit. Like all other people and communities, we are "creatures of environment."

It is our good fortune to be surrounded by those things which are calculated to bring out the better qualities in us. Our churches, schools and colleges afford privileges we all enjoy and naturally attract people of refinement, along with those who realize the advantage of an education; not to mention our good fortune in having those prominent in the world's work return to their homes or Alma Mater and so generously give us of their experience.

Tuesday, June 15th, the Illinois State Sunday School convention will be with us and the different committees have put in much time and effort trying to work out the detail necessary to the entertainment of so large a number of visitors in a city no larger than Jacksonville. Reports indicate that everything possible in preparation has been done and while there is no means of knowing definitely just what number will be here, the usual number of delegates is about one thousand to fifteen hundred.

Every resident of Jacksonville will of course feel sufficient civic pride to be anxious that our guests should leave us with a feeling that they have been among people who could realize the meaning of true hospitality in our much loved city, as we might in our individual homes. It is necessary that each citizen, man, woman and child feel it incumbent as individuals to show any courtesy possible, in fact go out of the way to show how much we wish to be kind. It would be worth while to ask every stranger we see if we can be of any service.

Representatives will be here from every part of the state and our representation will be just what each one of us makes it, for these people to take home with them. Make this personal to yourself and let all join heartily in the convention spirit.

THE REPUBLICAN NOMINEES

The nomination of Senator W. G. Harding of Ohio for the presidency by the Republican convention was in many ways a surprise. However, there had been a feeling for nearly 24 hours among those in touch with convention happenings that neither General Wood nor Governor Lowden, who had led in the ballots, could be nominated.

If the Lowden and Wood forces had combined they could have named the candidate, but the differences born of the campaign prevented such alliance. Governor Lowden was the first of the strong candidates to release delegates. His position was taken because of his belief that the best interests of the party would be subserved.

There is no denying that the Missouri campaign fund case gave the Lowden candidacy a severe backset. Those who gave the real facts consideration knew that there was nothing culpable in the payments made by the Lowden managers. The Missouri men simply misappropriated funds that were placed in their hands. But the happening gave the opportunity to enemies of Governor Lowden, or rather the adherents of other candidates, to make much of the situation. It was possible by insinuation and by telling only part of the facts, to make it appear that the Lowden managers were seeking through excessive campaign expenditures to buy the nomination.

But even without that happening, it is probable that the Illinois man would not have received the nomination. The leaders in New York and Pennsylvania evidently had Senator Harding in their plans. Ohio is a doubtful state. It has been known to give 100,000 Democratic majority and at other times 100,000 Republican majority. That fact was worthy of political consideration.

While the result of the contest must certainly come to Gov. Lowden as a great disappointment, he made a strong, open statement which has added to his prestige. His spirit is well evidenced in the prompt statement of his desire and intention to do everything possible for the party nominee.

Senator Harding's record in his home state and as a member of the senate for a six year period, commended him to the members of his party and to the nation. He has come into special prominence in the later years of his senatorial career as a member of the committee on foreign relations. There he has shown a keen understanding of international affairs and an Americanism of the broadest type. Reference is made elsewhere to the standing of Gov. Coolidge of Massachusetts, who is the vice-presidential nominee. Certainly, with Harding and Coolidge as the standard bearers, Republicans with pride and courage and with an enthusiasm born of belief in party success can do valiant combat with any nominees that the Democrats select at the San Francisco Convention.

Rippling Rhymes By Walt Mason

ADVANCING YEARS.

I'm having trouble with my teeth; the upper ones, the ones beneath, are always loose and sore; I find my hair is falling out. I have the stringhalt and the gout and walking is a bore. It's hard for me to read a book; my eyes grow weary when I look ten minutes at a page; I have a trumpet for my ears; oh, such things come with passing years, the penalties of age. I'm glad that in the bygone times I salted down my surplus dimes, with wintry years in view; with zeal I piled my trenchant pen, and saved a stock of iron men—enough to see me thru. Now by the fig tree and my vine I sit and rest and make no whine of fortune or of fate; I view the world with smiling eyes, but see the good that in it lies, and keep my smile on straight. And as I gaze I see old men who failed to save the shining yen in days long left behind; they slave away at dreary toll, and long to have six feet of soil in which to end the grind. There's nothing sadder than the sight of some old fellow, trooped, weary sight, still toiling for his bread, still struggling for a meagre pay, recalling money thrown away, and wishing he were dead.

NICELY DECORATED.

The decorating committee for the state Sunday school convention has done some good work and flags are already prominent in the business district. More of this decorating work remains and when it is completed it is certain that the streets of both the business and residence districts will show an attractive arrangement of the national colors.

Clean Up & Paint Up

Clean up and paint up. This is the slogan for all citizens for the next few weeks.

Members of the Civic Pride League will within a few days distribute circulars relative to the "Clean Up and Paint Up Program." They will also distribute cards containing rules for the collection of garbage.

The city administration asks the co-operation of all citizens in their efforts to make the city a cleaner and healthier place in which to live. It is hoped that the campaign will create a sentiment for cleanliness that will be lasting in its effect. The garbage collection rules follow. Cut them out and file them away for future reference.

Garbage is the animal and vegetable waste from kitchens. When rotten it smells and breeds flies. Fresh garbage in covered cans is unoffensive. Only soiled, wet garbage in dirty, open cans becomes foul. Unclean garbage attracts flies and hastens decay. Unclean garbage cans are a menace to health and will be condemned by the Health Department. Flies breed in garbage and should be exterminated.

Therefore

1. Provide metallic cans with tight-fitting covers and strong handles. Each one should have a capacity of not more than fifteen gallons, and shall have a diameter equal to at least three-quarters of the height.

2. This can should hold a seven days accumulation of garbage for the average family. If not, provide sufficient number.

3. Place the can on the ground near the back door on a platform if possible, so it can easily be reached by the garbage collector.

4. Put only GARBAGE into the garbage can. Do NOT put ashes, paper, rubbish, tins or other foreign matter into this can. Keep the garbage dry as possible. This department will make regular trips for garbage, and will stop at your house if the card is displayed. Otherwise it will be considered that you have no garbage.

5. This Department will collect your tin cans, tin pails, and glass bottles if put into barrels or any container that can be easily handled, but will not take your yard or building rubbish.

6. This Department will remove your ashes if put into a convenient place where a wagon can be loaded without having to handle twice, but as ashes are used for street grading they must be kept free from glass and cans.

7. You must telephone the Department, either phone 139, for the removal of your ashes or tin cans.

If You Will Follow Closely These Rules It will help the City to improve this Department. Co-operate with the Health Department in every way that you can.

'A Daughter of Two Worlds'

Following the thrilling novel of the same name by Leroy Scott. The greatest and most daring role of her meteoric career as an emotional actress.

On the Bowery in New York stood a low dance hall, the Pekin, kept by a notorious police character, Black Jerry Malone. Its glittering lights shattered the blackness of the slimy streets and lured the midnight prowler, the gunman, the sneak thief, the painted woman, the riff-raff. Here was born, and grew to girlhood, Jennie, daughter of Black Jerry. Here she was taught to forge checks, to aid the crooks, scarcely knowing what she did. Then one day she is caught and haled before a police magistrate, where prison looms before her. But black Jerry conspires with a retired criminal to save Jennie from the clutches of the law. She is placed in a fashionable finishing school where she meets the daughters of the rich, and later is introduced into exclusive New York society. The grim shadow of her past, however, always threatens her, and though she loves a man of the upper-world, the denizens of the lower world follow her, seeking gain by blackmail. Finally her house of cards tumbles about her head, and her name is blazoned over the city as the daughter of Black Jerry. What do you think became of Jennie?

Norma Talmadge tells you in this story of Jennie's startling and amazing adventures from the slums to the palaces of the rich.

Smiley Predicts $20 Flour.

Flour at $20 a barrel will come before the price of breadstuffs begin to decline.

This prediction was made recently by E. J. Smiley, secretary of the Kansas Grain Dealers' Association, who delivered an address before the convention of the Trans-Mississippi Association of Master Bakers, in session at the Chamber of Commerce, Topeka, Kan. Mr. Smiley was one of the principal speakers on the afternoon program. He cast a rather gloomy outlook upon the prospects for a big wheat crop this year.

Barring financial trouble, bread grains will continue to soar for at least another year, he said. Even at that the price of bread has not been boosted as much as other necessities, he declared.

Vacation or for Business

When you take your vacation this year, you are going to wear proper clothes.

Proper clothes means clothes which will keep you cool and make you appear in the eyes of the world as a progressive, up-to-date business man. It is as important to your health that you "feel" mentally right as that you make money and succeed in business. You cannot feel right if poorly dressed, especially amongst strangers. Think about this before you go away. You can buy clothes in Jacksonville, especially good tailored to order clothes, cheaper than in any other city to which you will go. There is no argument about this whatever. Come to see us before you go, and at least inform yourself on this question, whether you now feel able to buy clothes or not.

Ohio Senator Goes Over On
Tenth Ballot After Lowden
Releases His Delegates

The final check-up showed 692 for Harding, with only 12 left supporting Lowden, 157 for Wood and 80 for Johnson.

At their best, earlier today, Wood had mustered 312 votes and Lowden 311. Johnson's high was 148 on the second ballot yesterday. A motion to make the nomination unanimous was passed in a great chorus of approval, but when opportunity was given for negative votes there were some "noses" from Wisconsin, whose delegation had voted amid hisses and cat calls almost solidly for Senator Robert M. LaFollette.

Coolidge Name Stirs Delegates
The plan to nominate Senator Lenroot for the vice-presidency had the backing of many men who had helped put Harding over, but the name of Governor Coolidge stirred the delegates and galleries to repeated cheering and he was swept into the second place on the ticket before the first roll call was two-thirds over. Again it was Pennsylvania which furnished the winning vote.

Governor Coolidge got 674 votes to 146 for Senator Lenroot and 68 for Governor Allen of Kansas. Several others got scattering support without being placed formally in nomination. The result was greeted with another demonstration and there was renewed cheering a few minutes later when the tired delegates were told that their work was done. It was early evening when adjournment was reached, but before midnight hundreds were on their way home.

There was no official total of the final ballot. Near the close of the ballot there was a wholesale switching of votes to the Harding camp and then a motion to make it unanimous. This motion failed because of the opposition of the Wisconsin delegation.

During the balloting for vice-president, suffragists were active. They unfurled a large yellow banner from a balcony bearing an inscription demanding to know, "why does the Republican party block suffrage?" Within five minutes after Senator Harding had been nominated the suffragists were issuing statements announcing they proposed to center their demands for action upon the constitutional amendment on the nominee.

The convention finally adjourned at 7:32, after completing its work.

FRIENDS OF JOHNSON
HOLD MEETING

CHICAGO, June 12.—Senator Johnson made a number of statements about the Republican convention before a meeting of delegates and others from his state tonight.

"I knew from the start I would never have had chance for the nomination if I had gone into the convention with only a bare majority," he said, "but California went straight down the line."

He made some remarks about influence having been applied to delegates but most of the address was cut off when doors were closed against spectators.

The meeting was entirely private and non-political. Andrew McCabe, a Johnson manager attending said.

WOMEN CHEAP IN TURKEY

Harems Are Being Enlarged in Consequence—With Armenian Cunts, They Are Used Instead of Draft Animals, Professor Says.

From N. Y. Tribune
Turkish harems are not being depopulated on account of the rapidly increasing cost of living in the domains for many ruled by the sultan, declares Prof. J. P. Xenides, who is connected with near east relief. He takes issue with recently cabled reports from Turkey that the Turks are decreasing their domestic obligations, and declares that because women are cheaper than horses or donkeys in the market, and can be worked as draft animals in the fields, the harems are being enlarged.

It is only in the houses of the wealthier Turks that the number of women are being reduced, Professor Xenides said, but that he explained, is not because of overwhelming expenses. The pashas, he declared, are actually embracing monogamy on the principle that "he is happiest who is married least."

Professor Xenides asserts that the war, by increasing the preponderance of women in the sphere of Turkish influence, has knocked the bottom out of the marriage market.

"A man," he said, "may now buy a Turkish maiden for about the price of a hat. Their cost of maintenance is low, and harnessed two to a plow the Turks are finding them fair substitutes for draft animals."

WHITE WELCOMES DEAF MUTE ALUMNI

Manager Officer of State School Extends Hearty Welcome to Visitors—Miss Hasenstab Tells of Her Work.

Manager Officer H. T. White of the State School for the Deaf extended a hearty welcome to those attending at the reunion of the Alumni association of the State School for the Deaf Saturday. President T. J. Hainline of the association made the response. An interesting address also was given by Miss Grace Hasenstab, who is doing social relief work and investigation among the deaf mutes of the state. The address was of a most informing kind. In his welcome to the visitors Mr. White spoke in part as follows:

It has been my privilege in the past to be present at numerous High school alumni reunions and welcome back those who had gone out from under the supervision and teachings of my associates and myself into the world's social and economic struggle.

Those alumni reunions have been among the happiest occasions of my life. That is one of the compensation of a teacher's life, to rejoice in the success of his pupils, to appreciate and to try to correct the pupils' mistakes.

Today I am welcoming for the first time the alumni association of the school with which it has been my privilege to be associated for the past two years. These have been years rich in experience, in forming new acquaintances, in viewing new fields.

Responsibilities are great. I feel that I have come to know the deaf people, to recognize some of their problems, to appreciate somewhat of their inner life and aspirations. The responsibilities of this school are great. Its influence in moulding the lives of its pupils almost incalculable. No one man could face the task alone. The united efforts and enthusiastic co-operation of the teaching staff in the class room and shop, of the supervisors, of our social service worker and of every other employee of the institution have made possible whatever measure of success we may have attained.

We have only to look at the record of the alumni of this school to prove that we are stating facts. We find an encouraging percentage of college graduates among them, perhaps, as high a percentage as the average good public school alumni reunion can show. We find teachers, clergymen, chemists and skilled artisans. We find these people happy, independent, educated. Then we stop for a moment and we realize what a great work this school has done and what a great future it has. You all love this school. You are here to pay respect to your alma mater and to the wise men, many of whom have long since departed, whose clear foresight made this school's existence possible.

I speak for the State of Illinois, I speak for the department of public welfare, I speak for the entire institution when I welcome you back for a few days' visit, and I hope that this day may be the starting point of still greater things for this school which I beg to remind you, like every other school and college in the land, cannot prosper without the support of that greatest of a school's assets, her alumni.

Tells of Work. Miss Hasenstab spoke in part as follows:

Just what is your work? That is a question which I have been asked many, many times since I received my appointment. "Social Service Field Worker for the Deaf People in the State of Illinois"—just what does that long title imply?

So far there are no iron clad rules which lay down the duties of a Social Service Worker. Illinois is the first state to make provision for institutional social service work under state supervision. The field is a new one. We social workers have been forging ahead, meeting and trying to handle problems as they came to us. By working together with the department of public welfare, with the general public, with you, the alumni association, and with the children, we hope to be able to help in some measure to make light the burdens of those about us.

Here at the Illinois school we have found our problems a little different than those of some other institutions. Our work so far comes under six heads, the first of which is that of School Attendance—We have here in Illinois a law which was made by the fiftieth general assembly in 1917, that all deaf children must be in school between the ages of eight and eighteen. We are glad of that ruling, because we now are able to insist that our deaf children have a chance. So far this year, the list of children who have been and are being investigated under this head, number fifty. Of these, six new pupils have come to our school since October. Nine former pupils have returned. Nine children are attending other schools for the deaf, and twenty-five children are on our list for September. Besides these, we are keeping in touch with two little tots who are to come to us in the future—one is four years old and the other is only eighteen months old.

Employment for the deaf—it has been my pleasure, so far, to communicate personally or by letter with fifteen companies in regard to the employment of the deaf. The public is interested in the deaf people. All they need is information in regard to them. Nearly everywhere I have been, employers and employment managers have been very courteous, kind and considerate and willing to do our part. We are willing to do our part, but it rests with you, the deaf people, to back us up.

Publicity—I spoke a moment ago about the willingness with which the people have received our work. We realize that at once the public knows something of what they are trying to do, it cannot help but be interested. Publicity is a necessity.

Talks—Besides the above, about twenty-seven talks have been made to groups of hearing and deaf audiences, telling them of what the state is endeavoring to do for its deaf. Then, as I have gone about on my trips, I have made it a point to meet the state's attorneys, the county superintendents and all other social workers. We call each other "lieutenants." If we can be of help to each other at any time we are always glad to do so. The local editors have been very kind to give space to our work in their papers.

Home investigations—We visit homes with one of three points in mind. One is for the closer linking up of the home and our school. That is, meeting the parents, seeing the other members of the family and becoming better acquainted with the background from which the children come. Then we visit the homes sometimes to investigate home conditions. Often we have special problems to consider, such as placing a child under county care, or having a child taken away, if necessary, from a miserable, undesirable home and placed in better surroundings which will give the child more of a chance to become a worth while citizen. The third purpose we bear in mind is that of investigating homes in which pupils may be placed for the summer months.

Special Cases—Besides the phases of our work already mentioned, we have many individual cases which require adjustment and solution. For instance, we had a little child nine years old who had lost her left leg in early childhood. In spite of her handicap, she used a crutch very well and seemed happy and contented. The case was investigated and the arrangements were made to have an artificial leg made at once. The little girl has been using the artificial leg since Christmas time and now walks, runs and even plays hop-scotch as well as any other child.

Afternoon Program. The program as published in the Journal Saturday morning was carried out. Prizes were awarded as follows: To the oldest graduate present—Michael McMahon of Raymond, Ind., class of 1908. To the graduate coming the longest distance—Mrs. William Tilley, of San Francisco. Banquet.

The banquet Saturday evening was quite an elaborate affair, the tables being beautifully arranged with roses and carnations being used in profusion. A delicious four course repast was served after which the speakers of the evening were cleverly and humorously introduced by the toastmaster, Rev. J. H. Cloud of St. Louis.

Following were the speakers: H. T. White, managing officer. Mr. A. J. Rodenberger, East St. Louis.

Mrs. Eva Owen Comp, Council Bluffs, Iowa.

Mrs. Thomas J. Hainline, Elkhart, Ind.

Miss A. M. Roper, Alton.

Mrs. L. Welch, Matron.

Mrs. Frederick P. Fawcett, Cairo.

Miss Grace E. Hasenstab, Chicago.

Notes.

There were many motorists attending the reunion, some coming long distances in their cars.

President Hainline and wife made the trip from Elkhart, Ind., to Jacksonville in their trusty flier.

Mr. and Mrs. William Tilley were here from California. Mrs. Tilley formerly resided in Decatur.

The number of old graduates outnumbered any at previous reunions, several having the honor of being members of the class of 1903.

The moving pictures in the chapel added much to the pleasure of the members, fourteen films having been engaged for the occasion.

Telegrams of good will were received from a number of prominent members who were unable to be present.

GREAT ATTRACTIONS FOR THE CHAUTAUQUA

Directors Have Program For 1920 Well Outlined—Dates
Are August 20 to 29.

The Jacksonville chautauqua has justly won the reputation of being one of the best in America. Its programs include only the best attractions, and there are no second-rate days or fillers in the ten-day assembly.

In arranging your summer vacation do not overlook the dates for the assembly—August 20 to 29, inclusive.

The management is offering for the coming chautauqua the best program it has ever arranged. While not completed, it includes unusually fine music, great speakers of national reputation and entertainers to please everyone.

Look at these eight great musical organizations:

The Beaumanoir Band of thirty men for two whole days.

The Cambrian National Glee Singers—eight of the greatest Welsh singers.

The Hruby Bohemian Orchestra of eight pieces. This fine company delighted everyone here a few years ago.

The Garner Jubilee Singers.

Vissochi's Florentine Musicians.

The popular Crawford Adams Company—with our own Elmer Adams.

The famous Chautauqua Preacher's Quartet.

The Chicago Operatic Company, the finest vocal organization on the chautauqua platform.

Among the lecturers and entertainers are:

Senator W. S. Kenyon.

Strickland Gilliam—"Off Agin, On Agin, Gone Agin, Finnegan."

Rabbi Emanuel Sternheim.

Henry C. Culbertson.

Herbert L. Willett.

Roy L. Smith.

Katie-Blues Cope.

Alice Louise Schrode.

J. Smith Damron, in a pottery demonstration.

The Saddlers, health lecturers.

Davis, the magician.

Margaret J. Penick, impersonator and reader.

Other speakers will be announced later.

Mrs. Alice Sharfy Houston will again demonstrate household economy during mornings and the platform manager A. P. Cobb, will also lecture mornings.

Contracts have been made for tentage and all arrangements for the assembly are well in hand.

TWO IMPORTANT MEETINGS.

A. A. Curry has returned from attending the commencement exercises of Shurtleff college at Alton. At the meeting of the trustees Mr. Curry was again honored with the office of president of the board. The affairs of the college are generally in good condition and it is doing an excellent work.

Mr. Curry next went to Irvington to attend the meeting of the trustees of the Baptist orphans' home and there too he was continued as president of the board.

The worthy institution has a hundred little ones in charge and is endeavoring to give them a Christian home and tender care. Many have come to know and love Mr. Curry and welcome him whenever he appears and several would have been very glad to go home with him. He says the religious tone of the place is most encouraging. During the past year sixteen have been converted and the interest in religious matters is good.

The Walohi Camp Fire Girls gave a successful ice cream and cake social on the State Street church lawn Saturday evening.

A Policy That Pays

REO has never been ambitious to make all the motor cars—only the best. From the first, the policy was to make only as many as could be made and be sure that every REO would be as good as the best REO that ever was turned out of the REO plant. That policy consistently adhered to through the many years has resulted in a demand always greater than the possible output of the big REO plants. At this time the over-demand is such that only the alert can hope to be of the elect who will drive REOS. Today—won't be a minute too soon.

CHANGES ANNOUNCED IN COFFEE COMPANY

Walter Schragg Sells Interest In Schrag-Cully Company—Walter E. Ealey and Ralph F. Sibley Will Be Associated With Mr. Cully in New Firm.

Charles E. Cully has purchased the interest of Walter Schragg in the Schrag-Cully Coffee company. The negotiations have been under way for several weeks and official announcement was made of the transfer yesterday. Walter Ealey and Ralph Sibley have purchased from Mr. Cully a part of his new holdings.

Ten years ago J. F. Clous incorporated the company and associated Messrs. Schragg and Cully with him. Six years ago he disposed of his stock to them. Since that time the business has been conducted under the name of the Schrag-Cully Coffee company.

Mr. Cully has been in the business for many years and is thoroughly experienced. Mr. Sibley has been in the employ of the firm for the past seven years, while Mr. Ealey has been associated recently with the Co-Operative store on South Main street. All of the members of the firm are progressive business men and will no doubt meet with success.

The firm name will be retained for the present. Mr. Cully announced yesterday. It will be the policy of the new firm to give the same high class service that was furnished by the old firm. He is a man of long experience in his line of work and a capable manager.

Mr. Schragg will remain with the firm until July 1. He then expects to take a vacation and will spend some time with relatives in Wisconsin. Many Jacksonville friends hope that he will continue a citizen here.

George Hall, the worthy weather observer of Alexander, called in the city yesterday. He reports the mercury at 92 in the shade Friday.

MAKE THE DELEGATES REMEMBER JACKSONVILLE.
The state Sunday school convention is near at hand and 1,200 delegates are expected to visit Jacksonville from June 15 to 17. In honor of these visitors citizens are called upon to decorate their stores and residences and in every way possible to indicate to the visitors that this is one of the cleanest and most attractive cities in the state.

The homes of Jacksonville will be open to the visitors and there is no doubt as to the generous hospitality which will be extended.

A parade is planned for Wednesday afternoon and as a matter of safety all vehicles will be barred from the square from 3 o'clock until after the parade has moved. Some slight inconvenience may thus be caused merchants but I believe that they will understand the necessity for the ruling—the desire to insure the safety of the 1,500 or more people who will be on the public square.

As citizens let us join in one accord in extending welcome to the visitors and making their stay here in every way pleasant.

E. E. Crabtree, mayor.

It saves the day, when it comes to DOWN TANGLED GRAIN, when some spots in the field are light and short, other spots extra heavy, tall or down and tangled, over ripe or green, when it takes a real machine to do the work right, then McCormick leads the world.

The elevators automatically adjust themselves to all these conditions, carrying the grain to binder head where it makes a perfect bundle and ties just right. The adjustment of the reel allows you to pick up all the grain, placing it on the platform so the elevator can take care of it satisfactorily.

IN EARLY SHIPPING

Marine Men Believe that 1920 season will be the heaviest on record in Great Lakes Shipping—Tide Water Congress in Detroit in July.

DETROIT — Unusually heavy early shipping on the Great Lakes due largely to railroad traffic congestion and the recent railroad switchmen's strike has led marine men to believe that the 1920 season will set new high records for both total and volume of freight handled on the lakes as well as when a freighter cleared from Port William with 503,156 bushels of wheat. Later in the season Ohio, to Gary, Ind.

At the request of the interstate commerce commission the war time pool, under which lake carriers' members will combine their equipment for coal handling, has been revived. The request for the commission is taken in itself as an indication of exceptionally heavy traffic on the lakes and leads to the conclusion according to lake shippers, that the railway transportation situation will present difficulties which will divert much normal land freight to the water.

All previous individual cargo records were broken last year. The formulation of measures to prevent a "national transportation catastrophe" is the purpose of the meeting of the Great Lakes Tide Water Congress, according to H. C. Gardner, president of the Great Lakes-St. Lawrence Tide Water association, who has issued a call for a simultaneous convention of both bodies here July 22-24.

"The transportation situation is a national emergency," said Mr. Gardner in connection with the forthcoming gathering and the efforts of the congress will be focused upon bringing out the feasibility and importance of a lake-to-ocean route via natural course of the St. Lawrence as a means of averting national disaster. "Railroad transportation," continued Mr. Gardner, "is no longer adequate for the commerce of the continent. Last year the railroads carried 400,000,000 tons of goods on equipment barely equal to 250,000,000 tons before the war.

"World commerce depends upon deep waterways. The Great Lakes-St. Lawrence route is the only adequate, natural waterway from the ocean to the heart of the continent, and it is blocked only by the Niagara barrier and the rapids below Lake Ontario."

Among topics scheduled for discussion are, "What commodities, now hampered, will have unimpeded movement by this waterway?" and, "What new production, now restricted, will be made possible?" Discussion will include obstructions to the proposed route, terminals, transfer costs, power possibilities, traffic, and resources.

A THRILLING EXPERIENCE

When Prof. J. H. Rayhill was a young man he was a member of the British army and for a good while was so situated that he could take a plunge in the ocean every morning and he did it well nigh regardless of weather accustomed himself to any temperature almost. Later on when he came to this country he was at one time on a flat boat going down the Ohio river when the yawl was lost and the captain was in despair not knowing how they would manage to tie up at night.

It was suggested that at a certain place a mile or two distant was a man who could supply the need but how to get there was the question. The young Englishman suggested that he could swim it but the captain called attention to the thin ice floating in the river and declared it would be certain death but the young man, the intrepid son of Britain insisted he could do it and the captain urged him not to try it but he persisted and did the feat without any inconvenience to himself whatever.

The gentleman narrated the circumstance in the presence of some friends and had no idea it would be used so his pardon will be asked for any inaccuracies and for the liberty taken.

DAMAGE BY LOCUSTS.

Persons having small fruit trees, especially pear and apple, and small, tender shade trees, are especially warned against locusts. Charles H. Ward says they are especially thick in his vicinity and have wrought serious damage to some fine fruit trees. He brought to the Journal office a bough of a choice pear tree which had been attacked. A slit had been cut in the bark in several places and host of eggs deposited.

From the tree they fall to the ground and burrow about thirteen inches and eventually appear as they have appeared this year.

Mr. Ward says he has protected his trees by throwing over them blankets, tarpaulins or anything which will keep the pests away.

Another gentleman called the attention of the writer to a small soft maple which seemed especially attractive to the locusts, which congregated in large numbers on the trunk of the tree and into the foliage.

INDEES WILL CLASH WITH BOWLING GREEN

Strong Missouri Colored Club to Show Here Today — Manager Smith Announces Change in Lineup — Hamm Will be on Mount.

What promises to be one of the best games of the season will be that at South Side park this afternoon when the Indies clash with the strong colored team of Bowling Green, Mo.

The boys from Champ Clark's home town come with a reputation of being one of the fastest teams in the state. The players are all veterans and have played together for several years. Advance reports received by Manager Smith indicate that the colored boys are real ball players.

Manager Smith announces several changes in the lineup of the Indies for the game today. Buck Simms will be back at his old place at first base. Fanning will be seen at third base and Briggs will be back at his old position at short.

DeFrates goes to right field where he should give as good an account of himself as he did at first base last Sunday. "Happy" is one of the best all round players in the city and should have no trouble in making the team in any position. Fanning is not new to third base, having played that position with the old Murrayville Ramblers for several seasons.

Patrick who has been out of the city will be in uniform today. He has been working out this spring and will soon be in condition to take his regular place on the mound. Padgett and Henderson will also be in reserve in case of emergency.

The tops has been placed on stands so spectators will be protected from the sun. The road from the street car line to the park has also been oiled and fans will not be bothered with the dust again during the season.

The teams will lineup as follows:

Indies—Ruble, 2b; Christopher, 1f; Briggs, ss.; Fanning, 3b; Grady, c.; DeFrates, rf.; Simms, 1b; Riggs, cf.; Hamm, p.; Padgett, Patrick, Henderson, utility.

Bowling Green Giants—Sides, 2b; Moore, 1f.; House, ss.; C. Edwards, 3b.; Wright, c.; Welsh, rf.; Sloan, 1b.; Lawson, cf.; Johnson, p.; Branch, B. Edwards, utility.

LITERBERRY SOCIETY TO HOLD MARKET HERE

M. E. Society to Hold Market in This City Next Saturday—World Wide Guild Meets—Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Litter Expected Home.

Literberry, June 12.—The Literberry M. E. church met on Wednesday at the Clark Homestead farm with Mrs. Claude Neil, there were 25 members present. The annual election placed the following persons in office:

President—Mrs. Earl Rexroat. Vice President—Mrs. Guy Dinwiddie.

Secretary—Mrs. Charles Clark. Treasurer—Mrs. Levi Deatherage. Reporting Secretary—Mrs. Ed Rexroat.

Committee on Flowers—Mrs. O. M. Petefish and Miss Ellen Deatherage.

Several reports were given and accepted. It was moved to retain a list of the charter members of this society, which shall be known as the honorary list; carried. Plans were made for this society to hold a market in Jacksonville on the 19th (Saturday) in the afternoon, place to be decided upon later, and made known in both papers, Journal and Courier. At this market bread, butter and cottage cheese, canned fruit (raspberry and strawberry; preserved fruit raspberry and strawberry, plum, pie, pickles, eggs, cookies, chicken, peaches, gooseberries, and several kinds of cake will be sold.

The managers are: Mrs. J. C. McEllen, Mrs. Mary Rudisil, Mrs. O. M. Petefish, Mrs. Tom Parlier, Cashiers: Mrs. C. A. Baevors, Mrs. Flora Nicholas.

During the meeting, plans in part were made for repairing and carpeting the Arcadia church, part of which has been done.

The annual dues were paid, and a very pleasant hour socially was spent. Refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by the Misses Anna Dinwiddie Ellen and Ruth Deatherage and Floyd Clark.

Mrs. J. C. McEllen of "The Ives," will entertain the society in July.

The Literberry World Wide Guild met on Friday at Walnut Grove farm with Miss Anna Dinwiddie. Most of the members were present, also the counselors, Mrs. John Daniels and Mrs. Warren Daniels.

This was a good meeting. The young girls are taking an active interest in the mission work, and are planning to send a box filled with the meats to some foreign society in the Baptist work. Refreshments were served, a good offering was made and the meeting closed.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Litter who have been traveling in several states, and visiting old friends and relatives, are expected home Thursday the 17th.

MAVERICKS

We don't see how W. J. Bryan escaped being nominated.

It moves us to make a noise like a horse when President Wilson scores a Republican congress for not reducing the high cost of living when the platform on which Mr. Wilson ran in 1912 promised to reduce the living costs prevailing at that time.

William J. Bryan should join the Republican party if it is going to direct its policies and write its platform.

That Chicago reporter who likened the quietness of the picketing of the suffrage squad at the coliseum to that of a lawn social, evidently never attended a fashioned affair of that kind. Most of them are about as quiet as a war front during a bombardment.

A man had to be a real enthusiast Friday to take part in a demonstration that lasted forty minutes in as not a place as the coliseum.

It probably was a great disappointment to the Democrats when the Republicans got together on the League of Nations.

Evidently most of them realized the only hope for victory was a division in the Republican ranks.

Irvin Cobb writing special stuff about the national convention said that if any candidate had tapped a keg of old time beer he could have started a stampede in his direction. We'll say he could but what's the use of talking about keg beer in such weather as this?

CIVIL WAR VETERAN DIES AT WHITE HALL

Solomon R. Sturdevant Passed Away at Home of Daughter, Mrs. Cal Monroe—Western Union to Aid Fruit Growers.

White Hall, June 11.—The remains of Solomon R. Sturdevant well known stone mason and civil war veteran, were taken to Roodhouse today for funeral services and burial. The funeral was held at the Baptist church at 10 o'clock this morning, and burial was in Fernwood cemetery. Mr. Sturdevant was an old resident of Roodhouse, but for about seventeen years has made his home with his daughter, Mrs. Cal Monroe, in Maple Heights, White Hall. He has been in failing health for several years, and six months ago he became helpless. His age was 74 years, 11 months and 17 days.

The Western Union Telegraph Co., has adopted a plan that will interest and assist fruit growers in finding the most advantageous market for their produce. A list of dealers, distributors and others who handle fruit and vegetables has been prepared in book form, and this list is available to producers at any depot or uptown commercial telegraph office of this company. Besides the growers, many buyers and dealers may be able to use to good advantage the information given in the lists. The distribution of the books is confined to telegraph offices. The company's idea in putting out this book is, of course, that looking to the quick movement of perishable fruit and vegetables to and from the most advantageous markets, the growers or buyers will wish to carry on their negotiations by telegraph. The telegraph makes time, finds the best market, secures the best prices, and quickly turns liabilities into assets.

HEBRAN WEIGHED ONLY 98 POUNDS

His Case Given Up As Hopeless—Tricks Tanlac and Whole Neighborhood Is Amazed.

"Actually I have gained so much weight since I commenced taking Tanlac that I don't like to tell how much it is, for I am afraid people who don't know me won't believe it," said W. D. Hobson, 1407 West Washington St., Bloomington, Ill., while telling recently of his remarkable recovery.

"It was in 1912 that my stomach went back on me. My condition got so bad that my recovery was considered hopeless. What little I ate was so extremely light I was gradually starving to death and finally I got so that I couldn't even drink a cup of coffee without suffering. Right after I ate anything I had the worst sort of cramps in my stomach and gas formed so bad that it seemed each breath would be my last and often I got so dizzy I nearly fell over before I could sit down. Day in and day out I suffered agony and felt that I might break down any time. I was examined several times and what I was told about the condition of my stomach nearly scared me to death. I was past going, could not hit a lick of work and had actually fallen off until I was simply a walking skeleton, weighing only ninety-eight pounds.

"It was at this time that a friend advised me to try Tanlac, so I commenced taking it. Well I was surprised at the way I improved. My appetite picked up the gas quit and I was eating things I had not touched for years. I took six bottles of Tanlac and today I have actually gained fifty-four pounds. My friends and neighbors are simply amazed, and they hardly recognize me on first sight, and they all say my recovery is nothing short of marvelous. I am eating anything and everything my appetite calls for and I never have a sign of indigestion afterwards. I am as sound as a dollar, can work as hard as anybody and am in absolutely as fine health as I ever was in my life." Tanlac is sold in Jacksonville by Coover-Shreve and by the leading drug store in every town. —Adv.

On a Hot Day the CHALMERS Runs Cool with Hot Spot and Ram's-horn

THE reason the Chalmers runs cool on a hot day is the very same reason a Chalmers starts quickly and runs smoothly on a cold day. Service records show no complaints of over-heating in summer.

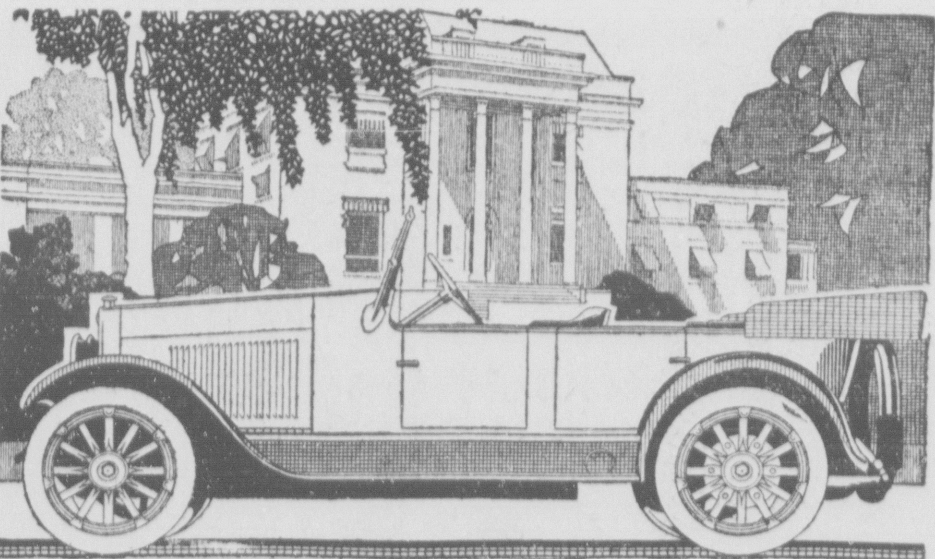

Such trouble in other cars comes from unevenness or the charges, "improperly digested fuel," and other matters often attributed to the raw, heavy, inferior gasoline you buy today.

Hot Spot transforms such "gas" into a "fine vapor cloud," just right for quick combustion.

Ram's-horn hurries it at a velocity of 100 miles an hour through "easy air bends" to the cylinders.

Thus follow power results that are smooth and even; and notably absent are those troubles that cause an engine to overheat, or burned bearings, or scored cylinders, or frequently fouled spark plugs and the like.

Engage a Chalmers owner in conversation about his car. He will tell you Chalmers is one of the few great cars of the world.

HOME MADE RECIPE CATARRH AND COLDS

Nonexpensive—Cut This Out.

Thousands are making this beneficial remedy at home and any one who has catarrh or a cold can do the same.

Ask your druggist for three quarters of an ounce of Mentholized Aroline and pour it into a pint bottle, then fill the bottle with water that has been boiled.

Gargle the throat as directed and snuff or spray the liquid into the nostrils twice daily. It's a simple way to get rid of cold and catarrh and keeps the nasal passage and throat so clean and healthy that germs of flu or any other germs will have a hard time gaining a foothold.

WAS NERVOUS AND RUN DOWN

RESTORED TO NORMAL HEALTH BY BIO-FEREN

"I feel I owe you people a world of gratitude for the benefit I have received in using your wonderful remedy—Bio-feren Tablets, which have completely restored me to normal conditions," says Joseph E. Webb of Muncie, Indiana.

Bio-feren is without doubt the grandest and quickest remedy for nervous, run down, weak, anemic men and women ever offered direct through the druggists and is not at all expensive.

Take two after each meal and one at bed time, and after several days take one after each meal and one at bed time until the supply is exhausted.

Then if you feel that any claim made in this special notice is untrue—if you are not in better health—if you do not feel ambitious, more vigorous and keen minded, yes, twice as much as you did before, the druggist who sold you the tablets will gladly hand you back just what you paid for them.

All druggists in this city and vicinity have a supply on hand, or can easily get it for you.
